

Country and stakeholder statements during the European Habitat

Both the official national representations and the representatives of the UN accredited stakeholders taking part in the Habitat III Europe Regional Meeting "European Habitat" are welcome to present their statements and will get the floor to do so in one of the plenary sessions. Statements are not to be longer than 3 minutes and can be presented in one of the 4 languages: English, French, Russian and Czech. The translation is provided during plenary sessions. Expression of interest for a statement is required to be sent in advance to the habitat3secretariat@un.org

How it is going to work:

Official National Representations

- all official country representations can express an interest to present a statement
- priority will be given to the 56 UNECE member states
- if the time slots are available, representations of other UN member states will be given the floor
- the Habitat III Secretariat will allocate time slots in the plenary sessions based on the country's preferences and the level of the country representation (priority will be given to ministers, deputy ministers, etc.)
- the Head of delegation will receive the confirmation of the time slot upon registration at the European Habitat
- expressions of interest for country statements are to be submitted via email in the following format: name of country, name and function of the Head of delegation, preferred day of the statement presentation
- all expressions of interest for country statements should be received by the Habitat III Secretariat no later than March 13 via following email: habitat3secretariat@un.org
- please note that the allocated time slots can change on a short notice during the European Habitat

UN Accredited Stakeholders

- all UN accredited stakeholders can express an interest to present a statement
- priority will be given to the regional stakeholders
- if the time slots are available, UN accredited stakeholders from other regions be given the floor
- the Habitat III Secretariat will allocate time slots in the plenary sessions, trying to take into account of the stakeholder's preferences
- the Head of stakeholder delegation will receive the confirmation of the time slot upon registration at the Habitat III Secretariat
- expressions of interest for stakeholder statements are to be submitted via email in the following format: name of country where the stakeholder reside, name of stakeholder association, name and function of the Head of delegation, preferred day of the statement presentation
- all expressions of interest for country statements should be received by the European Habitat Secretariat no later than March 13 via following email: habitat3secretariat@un.org
- please note that the allocated time slots can change on a short notice during the European Habitat
